

Break the silence.

Sexual abuse, rape, sexual harassment and assault – the threat of sexualised violence is part of everyday life for women and girls. Every sexual assault constitutes a severe violation of one’s personal and physical integrity, safety and autonomy.

We offer you personal support!

At the counselling centre against sexualised violence of SKFM Mettmann e. V., you will receive counselling, support and professional help in working through these traumatic events.

What we offer

Personal counselling

We advise and inform you personally, by telephone or email, on psychosocial, legal and medical aspects of sexualised violence.
We offer short-term crisis intervention to help you cope with traumatic experiences, and we support you with expert counselling.
If needed, we accompany you to appointments with lawyers, doctors, police, etc.

Prevention and outreach

We bring the issue of sexualised violence to the attention of the public with events, projects and information. Our work to raise awareness contributes to tackling all forms of sexualised violence.

We need your support!

Ways you can help

There are many ways to support our work. You can ...

- assist us actively by informing and encouraging women
- invite us to take part in an event on the subject, e.g. a training or professional development event at your organisation
- inform yourself in order to break taboos and bust myths
- support our work financially
